

Professor PAULO PEREIRA

Institution: Mykolas Romeris Univeristy (Lithuania)

Short biography and experience

Geographer, Full professor at Mykolas Romeris University (Lithuania) and invited full professor at Beijing Normal University (China) is a recognized researcher in Land Degradation, Ecosystem Services and Nature-Based Solutions. He published more than 460 publications in books, peer-reviewed articles and conferences. Paulo received several international prizes (e.g., “European Geosciences Union Soil System Sciences Division Outstanding Young Scientist Award”). In 2020 was identified as one of the world most cited researchers (Clarivate Analytics Highly Cited Researcher”. In 2021 was elected as a full member of the world most prestigious scientific research honor society Sigma Xi and recognized as one of the top (1%) researchers writing about soil in the past ten years (2011-2021) according to “Expertscape”. He is associated editor of the Science of the Total Environment Journal (IF=10.75). Presently he is working with researchers from the entire world in topics focused on environmental management (e.g., China, Brazil, Australia, the USA, Portugal, Spain, Croatia and Italy).

Lecture title: Soil ecosystem services in a climate change context

ORCID or Research gate link or personal web page:

Orcid: <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-0227-2010>

Webpage: <http://paspereira.weebly.com/>